PROMOTION AND REASSIGNMENT OF TROOPER TROY A. HISCHER

Colonel Bryan Klipfel, superintendent of the North Dakota Highway Patrol, announces the promotion and reassignment of Trooper Troy A. Hischer.

Effective May 1, 2006, Trooper Troy Hischer was promoted to the rank of sergeant and reassigned as district sergeant of the Grand Forks Highway Patrol District.

Sergeant Hischer began his career with the Highway Patrol in January 1997 by attending the Highway Patrol Academy in Bismarck. Upon graduation, he was stationed as a trooper in Rolla. In July 1999, he was reassigned to Fargo where he has served until his current promotion.

Sergeant Hischer received a Bachelor of Arts degree in History/Political Science from Jamestown State College.
